DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On July 20, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered left shoulder pain as a result of her Tetanus-diphtheria-acellular pertussis ("Tdap") vaccination administered on July 10, 2014. On June 29, 2017, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties' Stipulation. (ECF No. 46.)

On July 20, 2017, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 50.) Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $26,788.50 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $449.09.³ (Id. at 1.) In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Thus, the total amount requested is $27,237.59.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On August 1, 2017, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion. (ECF No. 52.) Respondent argues that "[n]either the Vaccine Act nor Vaccine Rule 13 contemplates any role for respondent in the resolution of a request by a petitioner for an award of attorneys' fees and costs." (Id. at 1.) Respondent adds, however, that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." (Id. at 2.) Respondent "respectfully recommends that the Chief Special Master exercise her discretion and determine a reasonable award for attorneys' fees and costs." (Id. at 3.)

On August 1, 2017, petitioner filed a reply concurring with respondent's recommendation that the undersigned "exercise her discretion and determine a reasonable award for attorney's fees and costs in this case." (ECF No. 53.)

The undersigned has reviewed the billing records submitted with petitioner's request. (ECF No. 51-1.) In the undersigned's experience, the request appears reasonable, and the undersigned finds no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $27,237.59⁴ as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, Nancy Routh Meyers.

³ The undersigned notes that "these amounts include fees and expenses incurred by the Creech Law Firm, P.A. prior to the case transfer to Ward Black Law for medical reasons. The Ward Black Law firm will disburse the amounts attributable to the Creech Law Firm which had fees totaling $13,720 and expenses totaling $446.19." (ECF No. 50 at 1).

⁴ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, § 15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁵

IT IS SO ORDERED.
